

week	min.	ILJ journal
EXAMPLE	75	I read two stories on the website, "The Stupid Monkeys" and "The Girl Monkey and the String of Pearls." Both of them are monkey stories, but different. The first story is about a gardener who takes care of trees for monkeys. I think the gardener acted foolishly so I could laugh when reading this. The second story is about a female monkey that stole the queen's pearls. The monkeys were intelligent while the queen's servants didn't pay attention to circumstances. for second class (done between now and your 2nd class)
for the third class
for the fourth class
for the fifth class
for the sixth class
for the seventh class
for the eighth class

Instructions

Become an independent learner by practicing English outside the classroom! Use this journal to write about practicing English.

1. See <https://www.globalstoriespress.com/practice>
The easiest section is Reading. Vocabulary is not too difficult too. Try different links throughout the semester.

2.If you can, borrow a graded reader from a library.

When we return to university, go to Lounge MELT (first floor of building 6) or any similar place at your school or institution where you can practice English.

Due dates:
1) Take a picture of your ILJ and email to your teacher after the third class.
2) Hand your completed ILJ during just before the final class.

for the ninth class
for the tenth class
for the 11th class
for the 12th class
for the 13th class
for the 14th class
for the 15th class

ILJ Reflection 反省- What did you learn by doing ILJ? Will you continue learning English outside the classroom? Write some reflections about ILJ below.

Add the total number of minutes you did ILJ, then divide by 12 to get the average number of minutes you studied every week. Write the avg. here _____